A RICHMOND PAPER FOR RICHMOND PEOPLE

TODAY'S ODDITY

Wind blew out the flame, and only the timely arrival of her sister, Doris, 12, prevented a tragedy. At the Highland hospital, physicians thought the child would recover.

FORD SPUR CONTRACT LET DEATH CAR DRIVER EXONERATED AT HEARING

'ROUND 'N' 'ROUND

With the opening of the Filice & Perrelli cannery yesterday, and the promise of a new industry which will locate near it, the waterfront is rapidly assuming a busy air.

And then the Ford plant will soon be started, and with this plant, other industries will soon locate in this city.

If the opportunity affords, one may spend a valuable half hour touring the new cannery on the waterfront.

The mass of machinery and the uncanny human manner in which the machine operates is more than interesting to watch.

These warm days you will find that summer is here—and if it is going to be as warm as last year, the ice dealers will do a rushing business.

Two young boys, evidently with the table of the ant and the cricket in mind, spent a busy day yesterday at the waterfront getting wood for winter.

All day they could be seen working, loading the drift wood upon a rickety old two-wheeled wagon to be taken home for splitting.

They worked earnestly ignoring the shipping and the opportunity of taking a swim.

Life is full of contrasts and when one is not too busy one may easily see them.

Some of them noticed yesterday.

Two men, both ragged and dirty, swinging a pick for $2 a day underneath a sign that proclaimed that "Millions Are Being Invested."

An old man, withered and bent, watching four young boys playing baseball in an open lot.

A slow funeral train, led by a block motor hearse and followed by a handful of automobiles, gives way to a green Chrysler roadster with two boys and two girls piled in the front seat—all laughing and chatting.

An old 1917 Tudor Ford sedan, rattling and shaking, coughing and wheezing, passes a huge front wheel drive Cord sedan that glisters in the sun.

Fair with moderate temperature today and tomorrow, but fog at night. Fresh west wind.

INQUEST TO BE HELD SOON

Technical charges of manslaughter against Aksel Lambrecht, driver of the death car which claimed the life of six-year-old William Cinko, were dismissed in the courtroom of Justice of the Peace Arthur Alstrom yesterday afternoon. Lambrecht was discharged from custody and his $2000 bail bond was exonerated.

The decision of the court, after hearing testimony of witnesses was that the accident was unavoidable.

Accident Told
According to witnesses, the young lad ran half way across the street, and then becoming frightened, attempted to make his way to the side he started from.

Witnesses declared Lambrecht attempted to avoid the collision, but his right front fender struck the unfortunate lad, who died later at the Hospital Richmond.

Funeral services for the six-year-old youth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Antone Cinko, 960 McLaughlin avenue, will be held at the St. Paul's church, San Pablo, tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. De Nicholas will conduct the rites which will be followed by interment in the St. Joseph's cemetery. Rosary will be said at the Wilson and Kratzer chapel tonight.

Died At Hospital

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bruce, Marshal Salisbury, John Tuna and Vera Messenger, acted as witness for the defense in the preliminary hearing yesterday. Antone Cinko was the plaintiff.

Young Cinko had been playing in the street when the accident occurred. Lambrecht, and his two companions, Miss Messenger and Tuna, told the court that the lad ran directly in front of the machine and the accident was unavoidable. The youth was taken to the hospital Richmond where he died a few minutes later from a fractured skull and internal injuries.

MARTINEZ, June 26.—A verdict in favor of Mrs. Frances Lods of Richmond, in a suit to quiet title of a house and two lots in Richmond was rendered yesterday by Superior Judge A. V. Alvarado.

Six months ago when the case came before the court, Public Administrator Raymond Johnson refused to deed the property to Mrs. Lods, and she brought suit to clear deed to the title.

SEA FLIERS GREETED AT NEW YORK

ROOSEVELT FIELD, N. Y., June 26.—UP—The silver grey monoplane, Southern Cross, conqueror of oceans, landed here today at 6:29 p. m. EST, 15 hours and 26 minutes after hopping off from Harbor Grace, Newfoundland.

A crowd estimated at ten thousand greeted it. The crowd wildly cheered the gallant crew, which settled here for their second stop since leaving Port Marnock Beach, Ireland, in the early morning of Tuesday.

Good Landing
It was a graceful landing. The Southern Cross, escorted by a dozen planes, was sighted at 6:26 p. m., racing in from the west where it had passed over New York City.

Because of a fresh southwest wind it was necessary to circle the field several times.

The plane, its motors throbbing true, went through a number of maneuvers, calculated to thrill the crowd.

Sun Low.

The sun was low in the west and the Southern Cross and the other planes made an effective silhouette. Finally, the pilot cut his sun and went into a glide for the approach at a 75 mile an hour.

3 KILLED BY HAIL STORM

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., June 26.—UP—A destructive hail storm following immediately after a terrific electric storm burst over Lunenburg, a Trinity Bay fishing community, taking a toll in lives and property, according to an official message received tonight by the Minister of Posts.

Chunks of ice, some of them weighing as much as ten pounds, crashed through roofs of dwellings and smaller structures, injuring men, women and children and ripped into shreds the sails of many fishing boats in the harbor, the message said.

The jutting lumps of ice were responsible for the deaths of three men in the settlement streets, according to the message.

Reports from other unofficial sources said that some 30 small craft in the harbor were sunk. Root trees were barked by the biting hail and farm crops were leveled.

So suddenly was the community enveloped in darkness by thick black clouds that residents became fearful. A near panic occurred when the thunder storm turned into the damaging rain of ice.

BOAT RACES WILL BE HELD HERE IN JULY

The Richmond inner harbor will this summer be the scene of outboard racing between boats from all sections of California.

Plans were formed at a recent meeting of the Richmond Outboard Boating club for the races to be held under the auspices of the local organization this season. The first event of the year will occur on either July 13 or 20. The date will most probably be July 20 because of the high tide that will be in progress at that time.

The next and major local boating event of this year will occur during the month of August. It is expected that more than 30,000 sporting enthusiasts will visit Richmond at that time to witness the races. Many sportsmen from other parts of the state are expected to enter in competition with the local drivers.

Meet Planned

Committees to supervise the coming boating events were chosen at the recent meeting of the Richmond Boating club.

Jones 5, 10 Law Saves Slayer

TUCSON, Ariz., June 26.—UP—The Jones "Five and Ten" law which makes a felony of transportation of liquor, today appeared as a barrier to possible prosecution of Jose Ascencio, Indian policeman, who shot and fatally wounded Jose Lopez, 22, when the latter attempted to escape from custody of Ascencio and a guard.

A coroner's jury returned a verdict that Lopez was shot by Ascencio, but did not make any recommendation. Had Lopez committed a misdemeanor in transportation of liquor officers said Ascencio might have been held on charges of murder.

Contractors from Richmond and the bay region have submitted bids on the work.

When the ship berthed here he was missing and in his room were found many of his clothes with all marks of identification removed.

LOS ANGELES, June 26.—UP—The products of the Globe Bottling company too closely resembled both in name and product that of Coca Cola, the latter company charged today in asking for a perpetual restraining order against Globe, and an accounting of the profits derived from the manufacture and sale of such products.

The petition contended that the Globe company's act endangers the $100,000,000 business the Coca Cola company has built up over a period of years and at an expense of $35,000,000.

WORK WILL START AT ONCE

Contracts for the construction of a spur track to serve the Ford plant on the Richmond inner harbor have been let to the United Commercial company in San Francisco, it was revealed yesterday. The work must be finished by July 15.

A sub-contract for the grading of the track has been awarded to Higgins and Marshall, of Richmond.

Preliminary work on the track is being held up until permission is granted by the railroad commission for the crossing of Hall avenue.

Material On Hand
Material for the new track is in readiness. Part of it is now stored by the Southern Pacific company and another portion is on cars near the Filice and Perrelli plant on the Richmond harbor.

The spur track will run from the Southern Pacific track at Hall avenue on south to the northerly end of the Ford building.

A second track will run along the east side of the Ford building to the proposed Ford wharf.

Grading Soon
Higgins and Marshall will start the grading for the new track just as soon as the necessary permission is given for the crossing of Hall avenue.

A crew of men with tractors and graders will be put at work on the project. With the announcement that the track must be finished by July 15, start of construction of the new Ford assembly plant within the next few weeks was seen.

At the present time all bids on the construction of the plant are in the hands of the Ford officials at Dearborn and are now being studied.

Contractors from Richmond and the bay region have submitted bids on the work.

It was originally announced by the Ford officials in the east that the contracts will be awarded on or about July 2.

It is expected that the plant will be in operation in the early part of next year.

MECHANICS IN VICTORY IN S.O. LEAGUE

Quick thinking and clever baseball won yesterday's Standard Oil baseball game in the last of the seventh inning for the Mechanics.

The All Standards were tied 2 to 2 with the Mechanics at the beginning of the seventh period. Three All Standards vainly attempted to reach first base.

Then the Mechanics came to bat with Kogler first man to face Didier, All Standard chucker. Kogler singled, Orr popped out to Lais, and DeBaere singled, sending Kogler to third. Then a conversation between Ben Arlett and Ted Carson next man at bat, followed.

As a result of this conference, Carson placed a nice short hit into the infield, and, before Shortstop Wickesser could get rid of the ball, Kogler was tapping the home plate.

A fine exhibition of baseball was staged yesterday afternoon by both the All Standards and Mechanics with but one error being made in the entire game.

"Spike" Elder also staged an exhibition of catching all his own between the fourth and fifth innings. The big man in the iron mask showed fine ability to snag the agate, although he was rather lacking in control. He also displayed marked ability at wielding his foot-thick stomach protector.

Acorns Defeat Missions In Third Game

SAN FRANCISCO, June 26.—UP—The Los Angeles Angels reached the top of the Pacific Coast league today, pulling even with the Sacramento Senators when they defeated Seattle, 5 to 2, while Hollywood was trouncing the Senators, 13 to 2.

Los Angeles had more than two times as many hits as the Indians, who scored in only one inning, the eighth. The Senators cracked badly, making four errors to contribute to their third straight defeat.

The San Francisco Seals and Oaks stayed two games behind the leaders with victories. The San Francisco Missions made seven errors, more mistakes than hits, and the Oaks beat them, 8 to 5. The Seals trounced Portland, 12 to 2.

Suit Filed On Title Transfer

MARTINEZ, June 26.—Seeking a court order voiding a grant deed made by Steve Barbikas to Smaragdo Barbikas transferring title to four Richmond lots, suit was today filed by Mrs. Ella C. Becker against the two men.

Mrs. Becker, according to the complaint holds a judgment against Steve Barbikas for $774, which she alleges, she is unable to collect. She charges that the property was transferred after the debt involving the judgment was contracted and contends that it was intended to prevent collection of the judgment. Thomas M. Carlson of Richmond is attorney for the plaintiff.

CORNELL WINS IN ANNUAL REGATTA, U. C. CREW FOURTH

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., June 26.—UP—A gallant Cornell varsity crew rowed to victory over eight rivals in the intercollegiate regatta today, driving the dope of the experts deeper into the river with each decisive bite of eight hard swung oars.

Three lengths behind, while the whistles of hundreds of river craft and the cheers of some 10,000 spectators on the high banks acclaimed the victors, came Syracuse, another dark horse, with Massachusetts Institute of Technology, the darkest of them all, third, five lengths away.

Thus, three outsiders, rowing with a rare combination of skill and courage into the teeth of a brisk wind and through choppy, silvery spray, competently outclassed the vaunted varsity eights which had been favored to sweep the river.

Surprise Win

The winner's time, 21 minutes, 42 seconds, was slow, but so were all the times today as the wind stirred the Hudson and little wavelets lashed the slim, shining shells as they drove rhythmically down toward the sunset.

Cornell's surprise triumph was made even more gratifying by a victory in the junior varsity event which the Ithacans won in 16:39 for the three miles, with Washington's jayvees second and Columbia third.

Syracuse, besides its splendid showing in the varsity event, won the freshman race, with Cornell second and Columbia third. The time for this event was 11:18 1-5 seconds.

Cornell Ahead

At the two mile mark, Cornell began to pull ahead. Rowing evenly and never more than 32 to the minute, the big red crew wore down the M. I. T. and forged into the lead, never again to be headed. It was Cornell's race from the two mile mark onward. Cornell's shell slid over the line three lengths in front.

Syracuse and California also drew up on M. I. T. but still the supposed giants of the river, Navy and Columbia and Washington were getting nowhere.

At the towering cantilever bridge, which spans the Hudson river at the three mile mark, it was apparent that the favorites were beaten. No crew out there this afternoon was going to overtake Cornell.

Bears Gain

Syracuse overhauled M. I. T. and was driving strongly at the finish to take second place, five lengths ahead of the tiring but thoroughly game Massachusetts boys.

California was gaining on M. I. T. at the finish, but could not quite wear down the latter.

The junior varsity race at three miles provided an even more overwhelming triumph for Cornell. Swinging into the lead at the mile mark, pursued by Washington and Columbia, the red jayvee oarsmen rowing a steady 32 beat, were never headed. The order remained unchanged at the finish.

Syracuse, Cornell and Columbia finished in that order, far out in front, in the freshman race of two miles which opened the program. Syracuse finished in 11:18 1-5, with Cornell 7 3-5 seconds behind and Columbia next. The order of the others, who were beaten, were Pennsylvania, Washington, Navy, California and M. I. T.

THOMPSON IS CONFIDENT OF WIN

SAN FRANCISCO, June 26.—UP—Flashing a confident smile and displaying all the signs of a man in perfect health, "Young" Jack Thompson, welterweight champion of the world, arrived here yesterday from Los Angeles to prepare for his ten round non-championship struggle with "Young" Corbett, foremost contender for the title at Ewing field here on Fourth of July.

Thompson was met by a large gathering of friends and well-wishers and in the afternoon was taken to the Royal Athletic club, where he engaged in his first local sparring for the bout.

Jack certainly looks better in the gymnasium than when last seen here. The Negro has more poise and certitude. Of course, he did not let his punches out on his sparring partners.

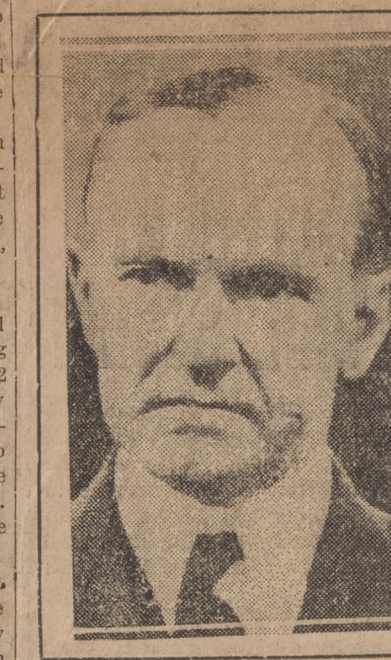

For the next seven days Thompson will confine himself strictly to getting in shape for Corbett. He realizes this is an important battle, and that he cannot afford to be out of shape.

An important opinion on the fight was received yesterday. "Big" Rooney, manager of Jackie Fields, former welterweight champion of the world, picks Corbett to defeat Thompson.

"Corbett is too fast and tricky for Thompson," predicted Rooney. Thompson won the title from Fields all right, but Jackie was out of shape. I look for Corbett to pile up a big margin of points on Thompson.

Tickets for the fight are being snapped up in large numbers by the clientele. Promoter Ed Lynch says the advance sale is very large and feels as the day of the fight nears the demand for pasteboards will pick up.

The show will start at 1 o'clock, a departure from the usual starting time. This is to give persons coming in for the fight and those planning to leave the city, ample time to get away and enjoy the holiday in addition to witnessing the fight.

Baschall a la Chinese will be witnessed Sunday afternoon by local fans, when the Richmond Elks tangle with the Wa Sung Athletic club team of Oakland.

The local athletes will have plenty to do Sunday afternoon at First street, according to reports from Alameda county. The Chinese boys are reputed to know plenty about America's national pastime. The Chinese boys but recently defeated the Millvale nine and the Merritt Athletic club. With such a record, they ought to stage a hard ball game in Richmond this week-end.

Sunday's game is a pre-season contest for the Richmond Elks. They will enter this year's Elks state competition with Oakland, Alameda and San Francisco, probably next month.

Kogler and Bliss will probably be called upon to do the chucking for the Richmond squad Sunday, while Jensen will be behind the plate.

From the report given the June Festival held Monday evening, June 23 was a decided success financially. The sum cleared will be turned over to aid in the church finances.

The women are continuing their paper drive and request that all those wishing to respond will deliver their papers to the home of Mrs. Helen Mitchell, 427 Macdonald avenue.

The next regular meeting will be held July 10 in the church parlors.

COUNTY WILL KEEP IN BUDGET LIMIT FOR YEAR

The regular county appropriations were expended to May 31. Taxes received last April by County Tax Collector Martin W. Joost, and which were allocated during the month of May, has made available to each county fund a considerable sum.

With the allocation of taxes, the fund condition of the county shows the following excellent position as of May 31st.

General County Funds $1,267,807.15
School Funds 1,256,573.70
$2,524,380.85

Repayments to Reserve Fund
The influx of allocated tax money to the various funds has made it possible to refund to the general reserve fund all amounts previously borrowed from it, with the result that this fund as of May 31, shows a total on hand of $145,781.22. This is the fund from which advances may be made when fully approved to tide the various county departments needing help over a period.

Comparative figures given below show the functions of the county as well as the budget appropriations for the current fiscal year and the expenditures to May 31st.

Function	Appropriation	Expenditure to May 31	Percent
General Government	$269,186.00	$203,737.60	75.7%
Elections	8,400.00	3,814.23	45.5%
County Buildings	58,896.00	44,864.73	76.2%
Judicial	19,598.00	15,164.49	77.4%

Conservation of Health	12,500.00	10,868.85	87.0%
Charities and Corrections	287,009.00	231,158.76	80.4%
Recreation	50,750.00	48,741.42	96.0%
Highways and Bridges	636,125.00	488,786.53	76.8%
Miscellaneous	324,820.00	265,086.41	81.4%
Education	2,169,454.00	1,977,832.82	91.1%
TOTALS	$4,119,128.00	$3,344,327.68

Included in the title of miscellaneous is an appropriation of $60,500 for the Joint Highway Tunnel of which to date only $1,000 has been spent; also in the miscellaneous fund is the sum of $187,700 toward the cost of a Hall of Records.

"Oscar" Mourned In Auto Crash

DENVER, Colo.—Patrolman G. Magnor, investigating an automobile crash, was horrified when Ruth Johanson, 17 year old driver of one of the machines, tearfully inquired of him while gazing at the wreckage:

"Oscar's a goner, isn't he officer?"
"Gosh, lady, is your boy friend in there?" Magnor exclaimed.
"No—Oscar is him—that-it this which you've called the wreck. I've owned Oscar nine months and he's part of the Johanson family," added the girl.

Here's A Red Hot Tip For Men With Big Waistlines

Safe Way To Get Rid of Surplus Fat And At the Same Time Gain In Vigor Energy and Mental Activity—Feel Younger.

New York Man Tells Concise Story To Fat Men

Yes, Gentlemen: Writes W. R. Daniels of Richmond Hill—"I have finished my second bottle of Kruschen Salts and have obtained the following results:"
1—"I have removed 3 inches from the belt line."
2—"Get up in the morning feeling 100 per cent."
3—"I am 25% more active."
4—"My mind is clearer."
5—"My wind has improved 25%."
6—"All skin eruptions have disappeared."
7—"My face and lips have color."
8—"When I go to bed I am motionless—sleep like a brick."
9—"Am 46 years old and feel 20 years younger."
Millions of men the world over are taking the little daily dose of Kruschen because they know that it keeps them everlastingly feeling fit and active—life really becomes a glorious adventure—well worth living.
Don't confuse Kruschen with the ordinary salts that are made for just one purpose (to act on the bowels).
Keep everlastingly before you the fact that Kruschen contains the six vital rejuvenating salts that nature put into the human body at the beginning of creation and these 6 minerals your body must have or you could not live.
How would you like to get your weight down to normal and at the same time develop that urge for activity that makes work a pleasure and also gain in ambition and keenness of mind?
Get on the scales today and see how much you weigh—then get an 85 cent bottle of Kruschen Salts which will last you for 1 week. Take one half teaspoonful in a glass of hot water every morning—cut down on sweets for a while—take the exercises which Kruschen will induce—persist in this method every morning of your life and when you have finished the contents of this first bottle weigh yourself again.
Now you can laugh at the people who pay hundreds of dollars to lose a few pounds of fat—now you will know the pleasant way to lose unsightly fat and you'll also know that the 6 vitalizing salts of Kruschen (Salts that your blood, nerves and glands must have to function properly)—have presented you with glorious health. After that you'll want to walk around and say to your friends,—"One 85 cent bottle of Kruschen Salts is worth one 'hundreds' dollars of any fat person's money."
Leading druggists all over the world sell Kruschen Salts—you can always get it at LaMoine Drug Co. who sells dozens of packages every week.

BRENTWOOD TO OPEN 'GOT FETE

Brentwood scene of the festival, is in gala array. And the finest apricots Diablo valley can produce, golden, mellow and sweet, are being gathered for display and distribution to the thousands who will gather at Brentwood to participate in the festivities.

Saturday evening, a band concert by the Liberty Union High school band will be followed by a program of fast boxing bouts in the open. Afterward, there will be dancing and carnival attractions.

Sunday activities will start early when, at 9 a. m. the pick of the horseshoe tossers of central California start their elimination rounds and the examination of Diablo valley's bounciest babies starts at the baby show. The annual festival parade, led by Sheriff R. R. Veale, with floats, marching bodies and bands will line up and get under way at 10:30 a. m. At the conclusion of the parade, Burton Pitts of Los Angeles, will deliver the address of the day. In the afternoon, the world's first championship "cat-skinners" contest and a fast baseball game are major events. There will also be band concerts, vaudeville, fancy dancing and a baby parade during the afternoon.

At the Apricot House, local point of this year's festival, there will be novel exhibits of fine apricots, orchard and dry yard scenes, and bushels of prime apricots and the 1930 Diablo valley yearbook containing scores of apricot recipes and other interesting features will be distributed free to all visitors as festival souvenirs.

INQUESTS IN MINE DEATHS OPENED

PLEASANTON, June 26.—UP—An inquest to determine cause for the death of seven miners in the Calaveras tunnel explosion near here June 3 started today.

Charges that rescue equipment was not at hand, that porcelain insulators were lacking and that safety lamps were in bad condition were made by the first witnesses to testify before Coroner Grant D. Miller of Alameda county and his jury.

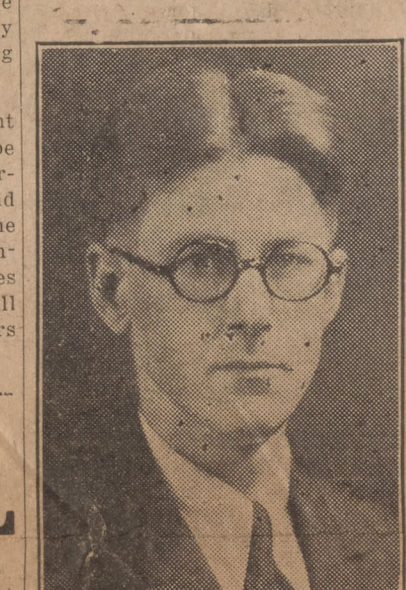

"Rescue equipment for saving seven miners trapped in the Calaveras explosion did not arrive until four hours after the blast," Henry Franey, 28, shift boss of the project testified. "Then it was too late."

James Ranking, civil engineer in charge of the west portal, where the blast occurred, declared that heavy insulated wire was used in the tunnel but admitted that it was not carried on porcelain insulators, and this had never been approved or disapproved by an inspector.

The allegation that safety lamps often had to be sent out of the mine to be recharged was made by John Burns, a miner.

Montana Town Disappears

MILES CITY, Mont.—Lost: the community of Linnberton, last seen on the Milwaukee railroad line in 1910. If found please notify W. N. Ross, district freight and passenger agent of the Chicago Milwaukee, and St. Paul railroad.

Officials of the railroad are curious about this history lost hamlet which, apparently, was located on the Milwaukee line somewhere in Montana. In fact they have pictures purporting to be Linnberton showing a group of Indians before a general merchandise store.

But where is it now? Certainly it isn't on a map and nobody seems to know just where it was located or what happened to it? In short, it's a ghost town worthy of the name, for its disappearance has been complete.

PARAMOUNT ON PARADE ENDS RUN TODAY

A sensation! That's "Paramount on Parade," which opened its two day run at the Fox-California theater last night. The audience went for it like nothing that's ever been seen in this town before. Applause and laughter shook the house. It is easily one of the cleverest, smartest motion picture ever made. Some of it is in Technicolor.

Every important player in the Paramount company is in the picture, and everyone of them does something big, grand, delightfully entertaining. There is none of the business of dragging in names just to swell the cast. Each member of this cast entertains.

A spirit of the most charming intimacy pervades the picture. The performers meet the audience more than half way and lead it into the joyful frolic of fun and gaiety. It's like nothing so much as a great, big, jovial Hollywood party with the greatest entertainers in the world on hand to provide the amusement and to act as ever thoughtful hosts.

There isn't space here to mention the numbers in detail. It must be seen to be appreciated. Buddy Rogers, for instance, and Lillian Roth, and George Bancroft and Clara Bow and Nancy Carroll, they're all in it. The song hits are marvelous. The dancing is superb, and there's not too much of it.

It's a grand show all-around. A peach of an entertainment. Like a hundred super-specials rolled into one—and then some!

SAM HARDY IN FILM PLAY AT FOX

Sam Hardy, starred in "Mexicali Rose," the Columbia all talking drama of love and revenge in Old Mexico, which opens tomorrow at the Fox-California theater, recently played a series of underworld "heavies" which threatened to put him in the "bad man" class permanently.

All of these required mannerisms and tricks of speech foreign to Hardy's personality, yet he played them in the same sincere convincing manner that won him fame as a leading man. Hardy found it a relief to get back to a straight role in "Mexicali Rose." His characterization of "Happy" Manning in this film is intensely human. "Happy" is an absolutely regular fellow, a hard-boiled but square, shooting generous sort.

The actor who usually plays a natural role on stage or screen finds it difficult to characterize; equally lost in the character man who tries to enact a straight role. Few actors attempt both. Sam Hardy is an exception to the rule.

The cast supporting Hardy in "Mexicali Rose" is of uniform excellence. It includes Barbara Stanwyck, William Janney and Arthur Rankin. Eric C. Kenton directed.

Also on the program is a talking comedy entitled, "The Madhouse" and Krazy Kat cartoon.

FRAMED WINS APPLAUSE AT RICHMOND

Proving to be one of the most effective and gripping talking screen dramas seen here this year, "Framed," the feature presentation at the Richmond theater, won favorable comment from opening day audiences yesterday.

"Framed" is based on a most powerful story of activities in metropolitan gangland. This type of story has been done before in pictures, to be true, but never more effectively than in this offering.

"Framed" has a double-surprise climax that puts it definitely in a class by itself. Local audiences had no advance conception of the plot twist and the wind-up came as a definite surprise.

Evelyn Brent, that superb actress who scored so sensationally in "Underworld," "The Drag Net," "Interference" and "Slightly Scarlet," is the central figure in this drama of gangland intrigue. Miss Brent wouldn't walk away with the show if it were not that Radio Pictures have supplied an unusually capable supporting cast.

Regis Toomey, who gained screen fame in "Aish," appears opposite Miss Brent and gives a performance admirably for its restraint and understanding. Perhaps the greatest surprise performance is given by a new-comer to the screen—Rali Harole, veteran player from the legitimate stage. Harold's performance in the "heavy" role is one of the finest ever to grace the talking screen.

Minor roles are well handled by Maurice Black, William Holden and Robert Emmet O'Connor. George Archibald, the director, has given the film an atmosphere of tenseness and suspense that does not lag for a moment.

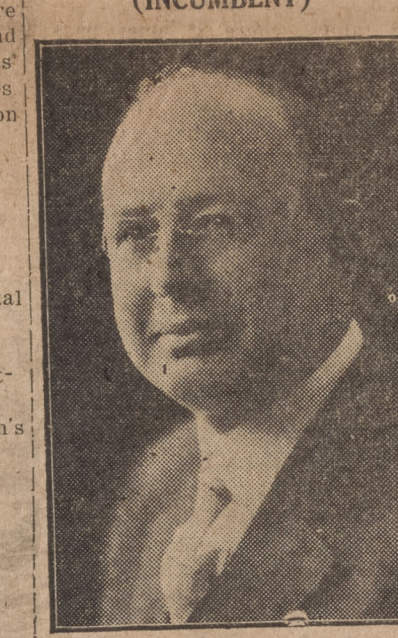

"Framed" is a talking screen achievement that should not be missed.

New Filice And Perrelli Cannery

THE NEW FILICE & PERRELLI CANNERY, which started operations in Richmond yesterday with more than 250 persons at work canning apricots. This view of the new plant shows, top, exterior view of the plant, and bottom, an air-plane view of the plant. As soon as the cannery concludes canning apricots then peaches will be canned.

NEW CANNERY OPENED IN RICHMOND

Richmond's newest industry, went into action yesterday morning.

The Filice and Perrelli cannery on the inner harbor, the second most important industry to choose Richmond recently, began operations with a large force of Richmond women canning apricots.

The new plant opened with no ceremony. Under the leadership of John Perrelli, the vice president, the machinery had been turning over slowly for several days in a series of exhaustive tests. Workers away from the spot where the Ford took their places at the appointed tasks, and there began the job of turning raw fruit products into tasty food for the tables of the world.

Plant Opened

G. A. Filice, the president; Walter Hargraves, the sales manager, and other officials of the company attended the opening along with civic leaders.

Operations will be continuous from now on until late in the fall. Following the close of the apricot season the cannery will turn out peaches, to be followed respectively by figs and pears.

No vegetables will be canned in Richmond this year, but next spring many thousands of cans of asparagus will be canned there.

The new cannery is the newest type. It fronts on the Tenth street across from the Parr-Richmond Terminal, approximately a block series of exhaustive tests. Workers away from the spot where the Ford motor company will shortly begin construction of a $5,000,000 assembling plant.

The cannery is 300 feet long by 280 feet wide, divided into two sections, one for the manufacturing process, the other for making boxes, labeling and storing of the cases. The Joint Southern Pacific and Santa Fe tracks pass between the two sections, making loading and unloading convenient from either side.

Fruit Unloaded

Fruit is unloaded from cars or trucks and enters the plant either by hand or electric trucks. It goes first to a sorting machine, then to a grader, and finally to the canning tables where it must pass through another careful grading process at the hands of the worker who places it in the can.

It moves by an endless belt to the machine which gives it the required quantity of syrup, and thence to the machine which automatically seals it.

The cooking process is the last. The cans, still on the belt enter the huge cooking machines, which take care of from 30 to 180 cans a minute depending on the size of the cans and the capacity of the cooking machines.

Cans Cooled

From the cookers the cans pass into a cooling drum and then by mechanical means across the railroad tracks into the warehouse compartment where they are labeled and placed in cases. The warehouse has a capacity of 200,000 cases.

The cannery sells its goods in 142 cities in 42 states of the Union and in five foreign countries. The bulk of the pack is disposed of before it is made. Peaches will comprise a larger part of the run than any other fruit.

"It is likely that we will pack about 350,000 cases this season," said Hargraves. "It must be remembered that we are getting a late start. The cannery is designed for a normal production of 750,000 to 800,000 cases a year; and no doubt this could be stepped up to a possible maximum of 1,000,000 cases if necessary. Owing to the high speed machinery, this plant has a larger capacity than would be indicated by its floor space."

All machinery with one or two exceptions was purchased new for the Richmond plant and was installed under the personal supervision of John Perrelli.

The older plant at Gilroy will continue operating. Richmond is to be the home office of the company and the company officials and executives will make their homes in Richmond.

LEGION POST TO PAY VISIT TO LIVERMORE

A large class of candidates was initiated at a meeting of Richmond Post of the American Legion in the Memorial hall last night. Dr. Lowell R. Sears, commander, presided.

Plans were completed for the journey to Livermore Veterans hospital Sunday when the local post will provide a program of entertainment for the sick veterans. The committee in charge has arranged for a troop of professional vaudeville players to accompany the Legionnaires to the hospital and furnish entertainment.

Members of the local post and their families will leave from the San Francisco ferry at 12 o'clock noon, according to the announcement. A large caravan of machines is expected to make the trip.

George Tandy, head of the recently organized drill team of Richmond Post, announced last night that the team is becoming organized rapidly, and will be a big asset to the local post.

champions of Richmond in the American Legion junior tournament, will play at Crockett Sunday, according to an announcement. The local boys defeated the Crockett squad last week on the home diamond and will attempt to repeat Sunday.

District Commander Steve Neilson, past area commander, Dr. William Baird, past senior commander, Tony Resgarido and Rube McNamara, all of Martinez post were present last night, and were feted at an early dinner by some of the members of the Richmond Post. At the meeting, each rendered a short talk.

Following the meeting, the members adjourned to the downstairs banquet hall where a sumptuous banquet was served by a group of American Legion auxiliary members, headed by the president, Mrs. Leah Baker.

Several musical selections were rendered by the Richmond Trio, composed of Mrs. Edith Cunningham, Miss Helen Cunningham and Walter Axelson. Frank Borden also obliged with vocal solos.

Gardner was not able to swim, according to his mother who came here from Los Angeles with him.

OLIVA WILL BE CALLED IN TRIAL

SAN RAFAEL, June 26.—UP—The prosecution rested its case in the trial of Vincent Lucich, who has been charged with the fatal shooting of M. G. Sturtevant, a star witness of the government in prohibition cases, here late today.

Court was recessed until Friday when, defense attorney Thos. P. Boyd announced, Gus Oliva, a prominent San Francisco politician, will be called as a witness to refute testimony by a state's witness, Mrs. Grace Berri.

Mrs. Berri, who was wounded at the time Sturtevant was killed, testified Tuesday that she had heard Lucich mention Oliva twice while discussing his own activities in rum-running.

"This woman is not telling the truth," Oliva charged in demanding that he be called as a witness.

Mrs. Berri was recalled to the witness stand shortly before the prosecution rested to clarify her previous testimony. She was excused on the stipulation that she might be recalled again.

Richmond Welcomes A New Industry!

The city of Richmond extends a cordial welcome to its newest industry—the Filice and Perrelli cannery.

This cannery is now operating in the inner harbor industrial zone, which was selected as the site of the company's largest and finest plant after five years of investigation. The studies revealed that no other city in California offered the advantages made available to industry by Richmond.

Richmond is a fine place for the new cannery, and the new cannery is a fine investment for Richmond.

Seven hundred new jobs are not found every day. That is what the Filice and Perrelli cannery will provide for Richmond people.

Hundreds of thousands of cases of canned goods are not found every day in Richmond's cargo figures. That is what the cannery will mean for the Parr-Richmond terminal and other shipping mediums.

These factors, taken with the fact that the Filice and Perrelli cannery is well organized, well managed and well financed, mean that Richmond has secured the very highest type of industry, one that will continue to add its quota to the city's prosperity in all the years to come.

Naturally, the Chamber of Commerce feels a measure of pride for the part which it played in helping to bring the new industry here.

Congratulations!

And a cordial welcome to Filice and Perrelli.

School nurse says
all girls should know this

TALKING to a roomful of high school girls on personal hygiene, an experienced district nurse said: "One of the basic rules of health for girls is to keep the system functioning naturally at all times. Normal exercise and diet habits should be encouraged. But when necessary there's no harm in taking nujol, since it works mechanically and can't disturb the normal functions of any organ of the body. Particularly with girls, there are times when nujol should always be taken. Take a spoonful every night for a few days. It's a thoroughly safe and harmless method. It won't cause distress or gas pains or griping."

Nujol is different from any other substance. It contains no drugs or medicine. It can be taken safely no matter how you are feeling because it is so pure and harmless, and works so easily. Every woman should keep a bottle on hand. Every druggist has this remarkable substance. Get the genuine.

DISRAELI

By EVE BERNSTEIN

Copyright 1929, Warner Bros. Pictures, Inc.
This novel is based on the Warner Bros. & Vitaphone picture starring George Arliss.

In all England there was probably not one person who could be accused of being indifferent to Disraeli. Many hated him, and many loved him, but if there was a man who could truthfully say that the much-discussed Premier affected him neither one way nor the other he undoubtedly stood alone.

Parliament had adjourned with a decided victory for Gladstone, his most active opponent, who had been instrumental in withholding from Mr. Disraeli certain finances that he wanted at his disposal. Fresh from his defeat, and his knowledge that the populace was still agitated because he was a Jew and had put his proposal of marriage before Clarissa. Disraeli appeared in the drawing room in time to witness the last scene of the romance.

"So you have refused him?" he asked as Deeford swept by him.

"Oh! How did you know?"

"That back was eloquent of refusal. You have no sympathy with ready-made greatness. You refused Deeford because he is a mere descendant, not an ancestor."

"Well, am I not right?"

"You know. Are you fond of him?"

"I like him very much. If he had simply said: 'Clarissa, will you marry me?' I might have answered just as simply, 'yes!' But he lectured me on model cottages and the model family!"

"I have a very high opinion of him."

"But he has no initiative."

"Who knows? If the opportunity occurred, he might rise to it."

Clarissa left discreetly to allow him to read a telegram he had just received. He opened it nervously and read it quickly. Then he read it to be sure he had made no mistake. When he had quite made up his mind what to do, he sought out Sir Michael Probert in the garden and requested him to come into the library for a moment.

"I have just received secret information," Disraeli began, without ceremony, when the two had seated themselves on the couch. He got up to close the door leading into the reception room.

"Extraordinary how voices travel," he explained.

Probert looked as if he did not understand.

"And how pretty ears come halfway to meet them. Well, I have received secret information," Disraeli went on, "that Ismail Pasha is in desperate need of money. As you know, he holds the controlling shares in the Suez Canal—an unparalleled opportunity for England."

"You don't mean that in earnest?"

"In dead earnest."

"Do you seriously mean," Probert asked in amazement, "that you are thinking of purchasing the Suez Canal for England?" To Disraeli's not be continued. "And you are about to propose to me that the Bank of England should back you?"

"Temporarily, until Parliament meets."

"Then let me tell you at once, sir," Probert stated firmly, "I shall never consent."

"Wait a moment," Disraeli pleaded, seeing that his plans were about to die.

"No, sir. There is nothing to wait for. I shall not allow the bank to play at ducks and drakes with its money, sir, on an Egyptian ditch."

"Egyptian ditch? That's rather neat. Only it's not ducks and drakes, because the Government will be at your back."

"How do I know that?"

"I say so."

hour rate.

When 10 or 15 feet from the earth, he started to level out and then brought the three points to the runway and rolled to a stop.

This was the signal for a concerted rush to the veteran plane.

The greeting party found a travel stained quartet. The four men — Captain Charles Kingsford-Smith, Evert Van Wyk, the co-pilot, J. Patrick Saul, navigator, and John W. Stannage, the radio operator, had been in the air 47 hours out of 71.

Good Condition

With the assistance of a score of brawny police a microphone was dragged through the surging crowd and one by one the fliers appeared for formal words of greeting.

"What is the physical condition of you and your men?" was the first question asked.

"Perfectly O. K." Kingsford-Smith replied. "All of us are more or less deaf, however, because of the long time in the air. That was to be expected."

Not Starved

Someone wanted to know whether the fliers had been hungry on either lap of the journey.

"Well, we weren't exactly starved with food," he smiled. "But then, we did not get extraordinarily hungry."

The next man asked whether, in the captain's judgment it was easier to fly the Atlantic than the Pacific.

Pacific Hard

"The Pacific is harder," he replied. "And I'll tell you why. It's much harder to navigate the Pacific because you must be more sure of distances and landing spots."

Kingsford-Smith indicated that he might fly to Chicago Saturday and continue to San Francisco and Oakland.

Suicide Seen In Death Of Martinez Man

MARTINEZ, June 26.—Belief that Harold Gainer, 36, Martinez butcher shop employee, may have taken poison with suicidal intent today led officials here to send the contents of his stomach to Berkeley for analysis.

Gainer, frothing at the mouth, stumbled into the main section of the butcher shop yesterday, after having spent some time on a rear porch alone. He collapsed on the floor, and died a few minutes later.

Mrs. Gainer, his wife, told authorities that he had threatened suicide several times.

In performing an autopsy, Dr. John Beard found that the man had died from a weakened heart condition, but also encountered a foreign substance in the stomach that he believes is poison.

It is said that Gainer had been worrying over financial difficulties.

Warren said his older brother was going to fight him and was armed with a rifle and a stock of stove-wood. He said he didn't think the shotgun was loaded.

Officials have not determined what disposition they will make of the case.

MRS. PERSICO WILL RECEIVE ESTATE FUNDS

MARTINEZ, June 26.—It was revealed today that Maud Persico, widow of Leo Persico of Richmond who committed suicide in August, 1929, will receive $67,782 as her share of the $110,564 estate, while her daughter, Theresa will receive $42,782.

This was revealed with the receipt of a return from the inheritance tax appraiser's office by County Clerk J. H. Wells.

Superior Judge A. B. McKenzie settled the estate in February after a long and spirited contest over the three wills left by Persico. A year before Persico's death in 1928, the Richmond real estate man executed his first will, leaving $10,000 to the Wesley Methodist church, the same to the St. Mark's Catholic church, $5000 to the Richmond Post of the American Legion, and $25,000 to Mary Nunes. The bequests were surrounded however by certain conditions, which prevented any of the devisees from obtaining any of the money. A bequest of $4000 to Mrs. Alma Snell, Persico's first wife was also made.

On April 3, 1929, Persico made another will, naming nearly the same parties as bequests, although reducing the amount of the bequests and revoking the first will. Then on May 24 of the same year, Persico made his third will revoking the second and making changes in the method of disposing his estate. Further alterations were also made on August 15, 1929 to parts of the third will, but in this will he failed to obtain the signatures of the proper witnesses in the presence of each other, as required by law.

Immediately after his suicide, the American Trust company filed the will which had been on deposit with the bank named as executor.

In his ruling, Judge McKenzie found that lack of proper attestation voided the third will and that Will No. 2, which was probably valid, could not be found and was supposedly destroyed by Persico when he made the third will.

With his decision in this matter, Judge McKenzie declared there was no valid will in the estate and Mrs. Persico was given letters of administration and the estate divided equally between she and her daughter, Theresa.
